

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

The Visitation of the County

In the Year 1615.

TAKEN BY

EDITED BY

JOHN FETHERSTON, F.S.A.

LONDON:

1872.

At a Meeting of the Council of the HARLEIAN SOCIETY, held at 8, Danes Inn, London, W.C., on the 7th June, 1872, the Hon. H. ROGER CURZON in the Chair, it was resolved that—

“The VISITATION OF CUMBERLAND in 1615, to be edited by JOHN FETHERSTON, F.S.A., be the Second Publication for the Present Year.”

Preface.

THE following pages are comprised in a thin folio book written by Mr. Richard Mundy, being a copy of the Visitation of Cumberland taken by Richard St. George Norroy in 1615. This Visitation, I believe, is not to be found either in the College of Arms or in the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge. Harleian MS. 1374 can scarcely be said to be a copy, but merely an ordinary of arms compiled from the Visitations of the four northern counties taken in this year,—those of Cumberland and Westmoreland extending from folios twelve to fifteen b,—accompanied with a few drawings, and at the end of the volume are trickings of arms from the Visitation of Shropshire, 1623. On folios twenty-seven and twenty-eight are fifty-three shields of arms of the Cumberland gentry, hastily tricked in printed escocheons; these will be found at the end of this volume, but not precisely in the same order in which they occur in the original, being altered for the sake of convenience, and reduced for adaptation to the size of these publications. Many of the escocheons are in blank, not having been filled up, the name only written over them. A list is subjoined:—

Arms of Cumberland families will be found in the library of Caius College, Cambridge, MS. 576, and a copy of the latest Visitation of the County (1665, by Dugdale) is in the College of Arms, marked C. 39. Magna Britannia, by the Rev. D. Lysons, London, 1816, Vol. IV., contains many engravings of Cumberland arms.

Report for the Year 1871-72.

THE Council have pleasure in reporting the steady progress of the Society.

During the past year twenty-five members have joined the Society. Three are dead, Mrs. Baker, Mr. Charles Thurnam, and the Rev. E. Wilton; and five have resigned. The total number on the roll at present is two hundred and eighty-six.

Since the foundation of the Society in 1869, three hundred members have joined, fourteen having died and resigned since then.

During the past year the Society has published 'The Visitations of Nottingham,' by G. W. MARSHALL, Esq., LL.M., F.S.A., and 'The Visitations of Oxford,' by W. H. TURNER, Esq. 'The Visitation of Devon,' edited by the Rev. F. T. COLBY, B.D., F.S.A., is ready. 'The Visitation of Cumberland,' edited by JOHN FETHERSTON, Esq., F.S.A., is in the press. These volumes will comprise the publications for the present year.

The Council have much pleasure in announcing that JOSEPH JACKSON HOWARD, Esq., LL.D., F.S.A., and Colonel JOSEPH LEMUEL CHESTER, have undertaken to edit the valuable 'Visitation of London in 1633, 1634, and 1635,' which has been selected for the publication for next year.

Owing to the importance of this Visitation, embracing as it does many of the pedigrees of the younger branches of the County families, it has been deemed expedient to authorize the illustration of this volume by means of a special fund for the purpose, which has been met by a most hearty response on the part of the members of the Society.

The members can obtain prospectuses by applying to J. J. HOWARD, Esq., LL.D., Honorary Treasurer, 3, Dartmouth Row, Blackheath, for distribution amongst friends.

The Balance-Sheet is appended to this Report, and the Council trust that the members will approve of the Expenditure for the past year.
